CENTRAL FLORIDA WOMEN'S LEAGUE MONTHLY LUNCHEON AT CITRUS CLUB Orlando, FL --September 7th, 2011; The Central Florida Women's League members met for the first luncheon of the year at the Citrus Club located in downtown Orlando. President Linda Cardilli and the entire board welcomed all members into the elegant club and promised a dynamic year of fundraising saying, "We are a group of women who care.....we care about each other, we care about the league and we especially care about our community and those with whom we share it."

The newly redecorated Citrus Club served a scrumptious luncheon of Chilled Gazpacho Soup, Rosemary Dijon Iron Steak and Cheese Cake of the Moment. The meeting included many committee chairs sharing their plans for the upcoming year as well as new members introduced along with their sponsor and given a yellow rose of friendship. Many new and unique fundraisers have been planned in which many community members may want to participate.

About the Central Florida Women's League:

The Central Florida Women's League (CFWL), founded in 1988, is a non-profit organization comprised of a group of approximately 120 women committed to advancing opportunities for cultural, civic and charitable involvement in the Central Florida community. In December of 1999, the Central Florida Women's League Foundation, Inc. was formed as the fundraising arm of the League. The CFWL is a 501 (c)(3) not-for-profit.
